CRISIS OR OPPORTUNITY?

THE POST-COVID CHURCH

Please join Christopher Lamb as he reflects on the pontificate of Pope Francis to reform the Catholic Church and its relevance in the Australian context.

Christopher is a religious affairs journalist and Vatican expert who has lived in Rome as correspondent for The Tablet. Since 2013 he has travelled widely and been close to Pope Francis.

He has distilled Francis' message to the wider church and world in his recent book, The Outsider: Pope Francis and His Battle to Reform the Catholic Church.
