

Context

As a Marist school, Sacred Heart College is committed to fostering and promoting academic achievement, as well as assisting families who are financially challenged. The basis of this philosophy is found in the Vision Statement of the school, which justifies the endowment of funds for those who fulfil the criteria for each respective bursary.

Principles

- Bursaries are offered at particular stages throughout the school to:
 - promote academic achievement
 - assist families whose financial circumstances might otherwise preclude them from attending the school
 - support families currently enrolled in the College
- A variety of bursaries will be available to cater for differing abilities and circumstances of students and the criteria associated with each bursary will be made available to the entire school community.
- Application for bursaries will be promoted and be accessible to all students.
- Bursaries will be facilitated by College personnel but recipients endorsed by the College Executive or Leadership Team. A member of the Executive or Leadership Team will be a member of all Bursary Committees.
- Bursaries winners will be published and promoted within the school community
- The range and nature of the bursaries will be the object of annual review by the College Executive.
- Cessation of a Bursary
 - Tenure of any bursary shall cease if a student ceases to be enrolled at Sacred Heart College.
 - Students will hold only one bursary at any one time at Sacred Heart College.
 - The Principal may, with reasonable notice, revoke a bursary for any reason considered appropriate, and particularly if a student is failing to meet their responsibilities as outlined in the College Student Diary and/or contravening the College ethos.
 - In each instance, recommendations regarding bursary winners will be made to the Principal for approval.

Champagnat Campus Bursaries

A consultative process is conducted amongst the staff to identify suitable students for each of the following Awards. The Champagnat Leadership Team (CLT) then recommends the recipients to the Principal.

Champagnat Award

This award recognises an exceptional student in Year 9 who models the key characteristics of a Sacred Heart College student. Marcellin Campus BursariesHenry & Richard Whiting Bursary

The Henry and Richard Whiting Bursary was established by the Whiting Family in memory of their late sons and brothers Henry and Richard Whiting. The Bursary provides an allocated sum towards school fees for a Year 10 boarding student to complete Years 11 and 12 at Sacred Heart College.

Criteria for the Bursary:

The bursary will be subject to an annual review of the student's ability to remain within the initial selection criteria. At the discretion of the Whiting Family and the School Principal a bursary may, from time to time, be offered to a student on a one-year basis.

Criteria for selection:

- The Bursaries are open to all Year 10 boarding students, but preference will be given to those families who find boarding fees a considerable burden.
- The students must be able to demonstrate a willingness to apply themselves to study and work to the best of their ability.
- It is an expectation that the student will be involved in school activities and have a commitment to their community both at home and at the College.

Selection process:

- The student's family will be required to formally apply for a bursary for their son or daughter by completing a bursary application form.
- A short list of applicants will be drafted and those students will be interviewed by a select committee, including the Director of Boarding
- All applicants will be notified of the outcome of their application.

The Award winner is presented with a certificate, medal and an allocated sum towards their school fees to complete Year 11 & 12 at Sacred Heart College. The size of the bursary varies at the discretion of the Whiting family. The Henry and Richard Whiting Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Michael Herbert Vietnam Veterans Memorial Bursary

Michael Herbert (SHOC 1957 - 1963) was a RAAF Flying Officer in the Vietnam War whose plane went missing on a routine bombing in 1970. Despite numerous efforts to find the plane, it remained a mystery until 2009. His remains were brought back to Australia and there is a memorial plaque near the 'Michael Herbert Memorial Gates' on Whyte St.

The service of Sacred Heart College in the Vietnam War is unique in our nation. We are the only school to have lost a former scholar in each of the three services. Michael Herbert (RAAF), Anthony Casadio (RAN) and Bernard Smith (Army). A sad but honourable statistic.

This bursary is awarded to a Year 11 student for 'Courageous Service to Others'.

Criteria for selection:

- College organised Community Service and/or Outreach Projects such as the Immersions, the Davenport Solidarity Camp and the 'Gamechangers' Program.
- Assisted in the organisation of the College Mission March and other College Community events (Marist Day, Performing Arts functions, Assumption College Exchange and/or the Rostrevor Intercollegiate, Champagnat Campus events involving older students etc)
- local community service projects and,
- an initiative organised by the student in support of others in need.

Selection process:

- Written application detailing the students 'Courageous Service to Others'.
- The successful applicant will be chosen by a selection panel representing the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Bursary sponsors (the RSL, Vietnamese Veterans Association, the Vietnam Veterans Association, the Vietnam Veterans Federation, along with ex-service organisations the RAAF Association, the National Servicemen's Association and the War Widows Guild).

The Award winner will be presented with a certificate, medal and a financial contribution of $2,500 towards their Year 12 fees at Sacred Heart College generously donated by the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Bursary sponsors. The Michael Herbert Vietnam Veterans Memorial Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Sam Climpson-Stewart Bursary

Sam was killed in an accident at Keith in 2007. His family, from Pt Augusta, initiated this award in his memory. This Bursary is awarded to an existing Year 10 boarding student who is entering Year 11 at Sacred Heart College.

Criteria for selection:

- Will be a Boarder at Sacred Heart College
- Is respected by staff and peers for contribution made to the spirit of the Boarding House
- Is involved in the wider life of the school

Selection process:

- The Business Manager consults with the Director of Boarding to determine a list of worthy recipients. The final decision is made by the Principal.

The Award winner is presented with a certificate, medal and an allocated sum towards their school fees to complete Year 11 at Sacred Heart College. The size of the bursary varies at the discretion of the Climpson-Stewart family. The Sam Climpson-Stewart Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Nicholas Peterson Bursary

Nick was killed by a shark off West Beach in 2004. His family, from Ardrossan, initiated this award in his memory. The bursary is awarded to an existing Year 11 boarding student for their Year 12 studies who is a good all-rounder and who exhibits to a high degree the personal qualities that were characteristic of Nick Peterson. These include:

Criteria process:

- A person who has made a significant contribution to the school and the wider community
- A person who has demonstrated initiative and responsibility and has been a role model for others
- A person who has demonstrated courage
- A person who has been inclusive and welcoming of others
- A person who has been a risk-taker, comfortable with their own individuality

Selection process:

- The student is to be selected by a panel of Boarding House staff chaired by the Director of Boarding, and a recommendation is then to be made to the Principal.

The Award winner is presented with a certificate, medal and an allocated sum towards their school fees to complete Year 12 at Sacred Heart College. The size of the bursary varies at the discretion of the Peterson family. The Nicholas Peterson Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Old Collegians Bursary

The Old Collegians Bursary is awarded to a Year 11 student(s) for their Year 12 studies at Sacred Heart College. The grant is from the Sacred Heart Old Collegians Association.

Criteria for selection:

- Reference to recent academic achievements
- The contribution to the school community, including participation in both curricular and co-curricular activities.

Applications must include:

- Photocopies of Year 11 results.
- A 500-800 word essay referring to the following:-
 - How have you contributed to Sacred Heart College e.g. Co-curricular activities?
 - How can you contribute to improving the relationship between the Old Collegians and current students?
 - In what ways Sacred Heart College has benefited you in life?
 - How would you contribute to the Old Collegians after you leave Sacred Heart College? (Please note with reference to points 1 & 2, the successful recipients of the bursaries will be expected to make every effort to act upon their proposal).
- A letter of reference from a current SHC staff member.

Selection process:

- The final decision on the recipients of the bursaries will be based on both application and interview.
- The Director of Marist Mission (SHC) will be a member of the selection committee and present the recommendations to the Principal.

Expectations of recipients of bursary:

- That they will be the College representative for the SHOC Association
- They will present at assembly throughout the year
 - After receiving the bursary the students are expected to raise awareness and inform the current students about SHOC and their role in the College community;
 - Prior to the applications being opened for the ensuing year's bursary, the students will be expected to inform the Year 11 students about the bursary and the criteria and application process.
- The Bursary recipients will be allocated a mentor from the SHOC Association committee to provide guidance and to be a liaison for their SHOC role throughout the year.

The Award winner will be presented with a certificate, medal and a financial contribution of $1,000 towards their Year 12 fees at Sacred Heart College. The Old Collegians Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Foundation Bursary

The Foundation Bursary is awarded to a Year 11 student(s) for their Year 12 studies at Sacred Heart College. This bursary is funded by the Sacred Heart College Foundation.

This Bursary was originally made possible due to the generosity of an Old Scholar of Sacred Heart College, Bernie Wadsworth, who was a Nuclear Scientist, at MIT (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) in the United States but is now funded by the Sacred Heart College Foundation.

Criteria for selection:

This application must include:

- A 500-800 word essay, and
- Photocopies of Semester 1 Statement of Results (Year 11), and
- A letter of reference from a current SHC staff member.
- The criteria is based on the All Rounder Award. This award does not recognize the champion in a particular subject, sport or service activity. Rather, it recognizes someone who participates in a wide range of activities and achieves excellent results. Such a person best exemplifies those qualities of a holistic Marist education which the College values and nurtures.

Selection process:

- The student family will be required to formally apply for a bursary by completing a bursary application form.
- A short list of applicants will be drafted and those students will be interviewed by a selection panel (panel members include a representative of SHOCs, The Foundation, and the Director of Marist Mission).
- All applicants will be notified of the outcome of their application.

The Award winner will be presented with a certificate, medal and a financial contribution of $1,000 towards their Year 12 fees at Sacred Heart College. The Foundation Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Sharon Jeloscek Memorial Bursary

The bursary is in memory of Sharon Jeloscek who spent 32 years at Sacred Heart College. Sharon was an English Senior, House Leader, Director of Curriculum, Deputy Principal and Acting Principal.

Selection Criteria:

- This award will be awarded to one student entering Year 12 each year who shows the spirit championed by Sharon; a determination to overcome challenge, uniqueness, passion and displaying grit. It may not necessarily be the highest achiever but the hardest worker. The award is open to all, with the hope of being inclusive to a variety of students from a variety of backgrounds.
- It will be funded by Lee Jeloscek, Sharon's son. The Bursary provides an allocated sum towards school fees for the Bursary recipient at Sacred Heart College.

Selection Process:

- Staff are encouraged to nominate students they believe have shown qualities admired by Sharon. Students will also be invited to apply, explaining how they meet and exceed the characteristics outlined in the criteria.
- A group of staff close to Sharon, in conjunction with the Principal choose the top 3-5 candidates.
- The shortlisted final group of applicants is sent to Lee Jeloscek along with evidence of work to assist in decision and student profile. (Lee reserves the right to not grant the scholarship in the event that a suitable candidate is not found).

The Award winner is presented with a certificate, medal and an allocated sum towards their school fees to complete Year 12 at Sacred Heart College. The size of the bursary varies at the discretion of the Jeloscek family. The Sharon Jeloscek Bursary is presented at the Year 10 & 11 Graduation Assembly.

Aboriginal Bursary

Indigenous bursaries are awarded to students in Years 10, 11 or 12 who satisfy the enrolment criteria and have a desire to be educated in the Marist tradition.

Criteria for selection:

- Students must be eligible for ABSTUDY
- Ideally, students will have applied for and been accepted onto a Smith Family Indigenous Youth Leadership Program (IYLP) scholarship
- Students must have the approval of families and local communities before applying for bursaries
- Students need to have a sufficient understanding of the English language that will allow them to access the curriculum at senior secondary school level.

Selection process:

- Upon receipt of an application the College Registrar will forward the application to the Aboriginal Education Coordinator (AEC) who will review the criteria associated with the applicant and inform the Principal. In the normal course of events, contact is made either directly or indirectly with the applicant and their family so that a personal assessment of the individual circumstances can be undertaken.
- An interview will be conducted with the Principal and the AEC to ensure an appropriate educational plan and support, if required, can meet the learning needs of the student. Boarding students will also meet with the Director of Boarding.
- Suitable students will be recommended to the Smith Family organisation to apply for the Indigenous Youth Leadership Program bursaries.

The Mollie Gilchrist Award

The award is presented to a current Year 10 music student, by the Gilchrist family in memory of Mollie's long association with Sacred Heart College - over 40 years from 1951. Mollie's 5 sons also all attended the College from the mid-1950s through to the mid-1970s.

The award is in recognition of a student who demonstrates a love for music and exceptional skill in their craft.

Criteria for selection:

- A Year 10 person who in the Music classroom and CEA Music program:
 - has made a significant contribution to the Music programs
 - has demonstrated initiative and responsibility and has been a role model for others in the Music community
 - that demonstrates love for Music
 - that demonstrates exceptional skill on their chosen instrument or voice.

Selection process:

- The person is to be selected by a panel of Music staff, including classroom, ensemble and instrumental staff, chaired by the Director of Music, and a recommendation is then to be made to the Principal.

The Award winner will be presented with a certificate and a financial contribution of $1,000 towards their Year 11 fees at Sacred Heart College.

The Rory O'Grady Award

The Rory O'Grady Award is presented to a current Year 11 music student in memory of past student, Rory O'Grady, who passed away suddenly in 2005. Rory was a very talented bass player and musician who graduated from Sacred Heart College in 2003. Although a quiet individual, he made a significant contribution through his love of music and commitment to the College Music Department.

Rory is remembered by many Old Scholars as being very enthusiastic about bass guitar, music and the music department. He was always a friendly face around the school.

Criteria for selection:

- The recipient will exemplify that same commitment to the music department, and always has a positive attitude towards their studies and others.
- A person who has made significant contribution to the Music classroom and CEA Music programs.

Selection process:

- The student is to be selected by a panel of Music staff, including classroom, ensemble and instrumental staff, chaired by the Director of Music, and a recommendation is then to be made to the Principal.

The Award winner will be presented with a certificate and a financial contribution of $500 towards their Year 11 fees at Sacred Heart College.
